1. On 13 April 1955, the mailing address of the guard unit at the Bilek (O 50/W 75) ammunition depot read Four 25X1
 Germans served with this unit. Guards on duty were Four 25X1 were provided by the station kennel. The unit was commanded by Four 25X1 who was a gipsy.

2. In early March 1955, a military labor unit which included numerous Germans was disbanded in Bilina (Bilin, N 51/F 23). The soldiers were reassigned to various stations. At Easter 1955, however, two Germans of the 1923 and/or the 1924 class still served with a unit in Bilina.

3. On 3 April 1955, German soldiers of a unit which was stationed at Chomutov (Chomotau, N 51/F 02) were located in Priecnice (Pressnitz N 51/K 80). They had been inducted six months earlier and said the service with their unit was similar to the activity of the fire brigade in their home town. It was even possible to be absent from this unit without leave.

4. In November 1954, a German of the 1927 class was inducted and assigned to an infantry unit in Jicin (O 51/G 33). In the spring of 1954, this soldier was discharged from military service.

5. In the fall of 1954, severe standards were applied to the induction of German soldiers. Nisou (Grottau, O 51/G 07). The inductees included discharged (sic).

Comment. Since 1953 Germans who are subject to the draft have been called up for military service. Most are assigned to military labor units. Induction of older classes, particularly the 1923 and 1924 classes, has been reported on in a previous report.
